ABOUT THE TRAINING

- This course provides first responders from multiple disciplines with skills to manage the initial response to a large-scale attack in a chaotic environment during a complex coordinated
- Aims to train responders in how to use skills to recognize the possibility of an attack involving multiple incidents of an extreme magnitude that inundate resources, exceed conventional tactics and strategies, and often require a joint response involving members from multiple disciplines and jurisdictions
- Topics for discussion include recognizing the characteristics of a potential CCA; coordinating and integrating the response of multiple disciplines and agencies; managing resources; using information sharing and intelligence gathering to develop awareness; and solving problems using creative thinking.
- Participants will learn to gather and disseminate critical information accordingly in order to facilitate rapid analysis.

ABOUT NCBRT

- NCBRT is a DHS training partner providing high-quality training to emergency responders throughout the United States and its territories under DHS's Homeland Security National Training Program
- Provided training to over 1,000 agencies at local, state, and federal levels along with foreign law enforcement agencies and military worldwide
